

The undersigned agree to boycott the Argus, recognizing that the paper has historically failed to be an inclusive representation of the voices of the student body. Most specifically, it neglects to provide a safe space for the voices of students of color and we are doubtful that it will in the future.

This boycott includes recycling the Argus and demanding that funds to the Argus, from the Wesleyan Student Assembly be revoked until the following demands are met:

- Commitment to create work study/course credit positions
- Monthly Report on allocation of funds and leadership structure
- Required-once a semester- Social Justice/Diversity training for all publications (Via Elisa Cardona/SALD office)
- Active Recruitment and Advertisement
- Open spaces dedicated for marginalized groups/voices if no submissions: BLANK that states: “for your voice” on the front page
